

SAFETY DATA

Composition	Aqueous Grape tannin extract
Dangerous components	Nil
Safety precautions	Product does not pose risk when used as intended and in normal quantities Does not pose injury risk
First Aid	Inhalation Move to fresh air, seek advice for breathing difficulties Eyes Wash with potable water Skin Wash with Potable water Ingestion Seek the advice of a medical professional
Accidental spillage
Safety Precautions	Personel protective clothing Recover the product into suitable containers Remove to appropriate waste disposal centre Use water to wash area down.
Stock Control	Maintain product in opaque containers Store in conditions of controled temperature and humidity Rotate stock with regard to manufacturing date
Safety PPE	Personnel should use PPE gear as required to protect against exposure.
Physical Properties
	Powder Red brown colour Characteristic 'oaky' odour Auto ignition >510 C Soluble in water
Stability
Conditions to avoid	Stable Excessive heat
Materials to avoid	Nil
Dangerous products of Decomposition	Nil
Toxicology danger	Nil risks when used in normal conditions
Disposal	In accordance with local requirements
Transport dangers	Classed as non dangerous No classification requirements for transport
Further Information	The preceeding information is current to the date indicted on the first page. Specifications, safety advice and regulatory requirements may change in the future. Before using the product ensure that you have the relevant and up to date information at your disposal.